Report on 'Understanding Masculinities and Violence.'

Date: 02/02/2023.

Women Development Cell of the J.V.M.'s Degree College has organized a workshop on "Understanding Masculinities and Violence", on 2nd February 2023, for all the male students of the college. Resource Person invited- Mr. Suraj Pawar- Consultant and Gender Trainer, Zonal Credit Manager.

Workshop began with a presidential address by Shri. V.N. Hegde, President of J.V.M. Trust. Hon. President Shri. V.N. Hegde addressed students about violence taking place against young females around society. Mr. Suraj interacted with students and explained the concept of gender sensitivity, and created awareness about gender issues and ~~turn~~ to eliminate gender disparity by showing various real-life video clips. The students got an in-depth understanding of what gender sensitization is and the need for building awareness around gender equality.

He explained how masculinity exercises its dynamics of power relationships in terms of creating gender inequality in and society how it deprives/disempowers women.

He shared his experiences and explained to the students how male and female gender differences are created in society by screening small -small clips of movies and documentary films.

The workshop was very much interactive, finally, he gave various guidelines to male students about creating awareness and maintaining equality among the society for healthy growth of the society and Nation. The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks by Aniket Pawar- SYBAMMC student.
