Alumni Guidance Lecture Report 2022-23

On 24th Sep 2022, Saturday at 10.30 am, an alumni guidance lecture was arranged for the T.Y. B.Sc(CS and IT) and M.Sc-IT students in MSc.IT Lab.

Mr. Abhijit Bhor, Sr. AEM Developer, and Subject Matter Expert from Luminescent Digital company was invited. The main intention of this talk was to make aspiring IT professionals to understand the work culture and development in related industry.

He started the lecture by giving ideas about the current trends and technologies which are required by the industries. He motivated students to prepare themselves for industry-level jobs. He discussed few interview-related questions, which had given them ideas about IT-market challenges. He explained how to focus on their studies by managing time and work and how to develop their programming skills? He discussed his success story to motivate students. He asked students to enhance their communication skills.

He explained the value of studies and gave a proper approach to prepare themselves for being successful a person.

The students were emboldened by this guidance lecture to focus on their studies and will follow to become successful and disciplined person in their life.
