Report

Report on Paper bag Making and Distribution

To contribute to environmental sustainability and make our area plastic free, all volunteers were asked to make paper bags using newspapers.

- JVM college NSS unit has organised paper bag making , cloth bag making activity on 3rd october 2023 123 nss volunteers were prepared paper bag and cloth bags from 26th september 2023 to 2nd october 2023 and distributed in sector 3 airoli market area on 3rd october 2023. The volunteers worked diligently, creating a significant number of bags over the course of the week leading up to the event.
- On 3rd October 2023, the paper bags and cloth bags were distributed in the Sector 3, Airoli Market Area.
- The distribution was well-received by the local community, who appreciated the effort to provide them with eco-friendly alternatives to plastic bags.
- The volunteers engaged with the public, raising awareness about the environmental impact of plastic bags and encouraging them to make the switch to reusable bags.

Impact:

- The activity helped raise awareness about the importance of environmental conservation and the need to reduce plastic waste.
- By distributing paper bags and cloth bags, the NSS unit contributed to the reduction of plastic pollution in the local community.
- The activity also served as a learning experience for the volunteers, who gained valuable skills in sustainable practices and community engagement.
